NOMINATED GUARDIAN AGREEMENT

PLEASE READ THE FOLLOWING INFORMATION, SIGN THE FORM AND RETURN IT TO THE COURT PRIOR TO THE HEARING TO APPOINT A GUARDIAN.

As Guardian, you may be required to manage the finances of an individual who cannot effectively manage them. The guardian may have control over all of the individual's income, savings, and property, and has a responsibility to spend and invest the money for the benefit of the individual.

Being a Guardian is not a simple task. It can be very complicated and time-consuming. You will have to account for all of the money that comes in – and for all of the money that is paid out – for the individual's funds that are to be protected.

After being appointed, the Guardian needs to sign an Acceptance of Appointment and file it with the Court. The court will then issue Letters of Guardianship.

Within 56 days after being appointed Guardian, you must file an Inventory form listing bank accounts, stock and bonds, real estate or any other valuable property the individual owns.

THE GUARDIAN IS ALSO REQUIRED TO ATTEND A SEMINAR AT NOON ON THE DAY OF THE COURT HEARING.

I have read the above information and will attend the seminar at noon on the day of my court hearing.
